Winners Announced for Fall 2024 Digital Health Awards®

LIBERTYVILLE, IL – The Health Information Resource Center<sup>SM</sup> announced the winners in the Fall 2024 Digital Health Awards® which honors the world's best digital health resources. The competition featured 65 categories in the following entry classifications: Web-based Digital Health; Mobile Digital Health Resources; Personal Digital Health Devices / Wearables; Digital Health Media / Publications; Digital Health – Social Media; and Connected Digital Health. A panel of 54 experts in digital health media served as judges and selected gold, silver, bronze, and merit winners from nearly 400 entries.

Fall 2024 Gold Award winners included AARP (Article); TheBody.com (Blog Post); Sharecare (Mobile Application); American Kidney Fund (Microsite); American Stroke Association (Website); Johns Hopkins Medicine (Video); Paradigm Medical Communications (Medical Education); WebMD Ignite (Interactive Content / Rich Media); and American Tinnitus Association (Magazine). A complete list of winners and entry categories can be found at digitalhealthawards.com.

About the New Digital Health Association

The Digital Health Association, now home to the Digital Health Awards, is a new membership organization for professionals and organizations that work in all digital health fields. The association is part of the Health Information Resource Center<sup>SM</sup>, a 32-year-old national clearinghouse for professionals who work in consumer health markets. The HIRC also organizes the 31-year-old National Health Information Awards (healthawards.com), the largest consumer health awards program of its kind. For more information about the new Digital Health Association, please contact Patricia Henze, executive director: phenze@healthawards.com • 800-828-8225.
