Winners Announced for Summer/Fall 2014 Web Health Awards<sup>SM</sup>

LIBERTYVILLE, IL — The Health Information Resource Center<sup>SM</sup> announced the winners of its 16th annual Web Health Awards<sup>SM</sup> which honors the nation's best digital health resources. The competition, which is held twice yearly, featured 56 entry categories, including blog, e-newsletter, mobile application, mobile website, social media, video, and website. A panel of 27 experts in digital health media served as judges and selected gold, silver, bronze, and merit winners from nearly 400 entries.

Summer/Fall 2014 Gold Award winners included Get The World Moving, Inc. (Website); Hormone Health Network from the Endocrine Society (Microsite); Nationwide Children's Hospital (Social Media: Instagram); A.D.A.M. (Medical Education); Health Care Service Corporation (Mobile Application: Tool/Resource); Medical Education Institute (Web-based Resource/Tool); Johns Hopkins Medicine (Webcast Video); and Craig Hospital (Mobile Website). A complete list of winners and entry categories can be found at webhealthawards.com.

The Health Information Resource Center<sup>SM</sup> (HIRC), organizer of the Web Health Awards, is a national information clearinghouse for professionals who work in consumer health fields. Other well-known HIRC programs include the annual National Health Information Awards<sup>SM</sup> (healthawards.com), which annually recognizes the nation's best consumer health information (in non-digital formats), and two national "Fitness Day" events: the annual National Women's Health & Fitness Day<sup>SM</sup>, held annually the last Wednesday in September, and the annual Family Health & Fitness Day USA®, held the last Saturday in September. Visit fitnessday.com for details on these events, both the largest health promotion events of their kind.
